We are authorized to announce J. J. SPENCER as an independent candidate for COUNTY COLLECTOR.

FOR CIRCUIT CLERK.

We are authorized to announce JOSEPH M. IVIE as a candidate for the office of CIRCUIT CLERK of Adair county, subject to the voters at the General Election in November.

HERE is something wonderful. C. D. McCarty of the 11th Iowa district was nominated by the Greenbackers, but refuses to accept.

The Adair county democratic party ought to be able to fly—it has two wings. One of them has been clipped however.

One faction of the Adair democracy are teeth and toe nails for cousin Bill and the rest of the crowd; the other faction is for anything to beat Grant. Can the two unite?

INDEPENDENT candidates from congress down to constable seem to be popping up with refreshing regularity this year. General Singleton, of Ill., who was beaten by a dark horse after fifteen hundred ballots, is the latest instance. The republicans are expected to make no nominations.

WHILE Missouri is taking a rest in the train and bank robbing business, some of her sister states who have been in the habit of sneering at "poor old Missouri" are coming in for their share of this sort of industry. Tuesday evening, Kewanee, Illinois was the scene of every brutal robbery. About 6 o'clock while the cashier and his lady assistant were cashing up two men knocked at a door and inquired for a satchel which had been left there during the day. Gaining admittance one of them kicked the lady into insensibility and the other ruffian felled the cashier by a savage blow, and forced him into a vault. They then secured the funds amounting to $20,000 and walked out.

It is the Brownsville and not the Sedalia fair which is postponed.

The following note comes from Brookfield, and gives us some thing as to the reward business. Our informant says: "The GRAPHIC seems to be laboring under a mistake. It stated last week that McArthur and his men 'kicked' when requested by Shaver to haul over $250 of the reward as per agreement. They did not 'kick,' but agreed to pay the amount when Shaver paid half of the reward offered in Adair county for horse thieves; as the same act which captured the Bank Robbers also caught the horse thieves; and our men thought they were entitled to a part of that reward."—Kirkville Democrat.

The Democrat's informant seems to be a little dull of apprehension. In the first place it was agreed to submit the question to arbitration, both parties to abide that decision. The facts were furnished and Judges Burgess and Ellison decided in accordance. If McArthur and his crew have not "flinched" and gone back on that decision then we are mistaken. As Sheriff Shaver and his posse captured the men and hold the receipt of the Linn county men for them, the claim against them looks very thin. It was a mere come-off and trumped up sham, to avoid compliance with the award made under a mutual agreement, and only further emphasizes the remarks we have already made in the matter. There is no mistake in the matter at all—it is a pure and simple exhibition of "cussedness."

One faction of the Adair democracy has democratic aspirations with republican accessories; the other faction would be pleased to reverse the order by substituting republican aspirations (for office) with democratic trimmings; it is hard to tell which is the head—or tail. We believe the latter has just a "wee bit" the start just now.

Look over this issue, note its interesting original matter and the amount and variety of choice reading presented.

NORTHWEST ADAIR.

Attempted Robbery—Neighborhood News.

Crawfordville, Aug. 12.—Thinking a few items from this part of Adair would be acceptable, I send you a few. Everything in the way of business is very dull—result Crawfordville dead. Good weather for making hay and growing corn. Corn looks well where the hoe was used. Vegetables of all kinds look well at the time although early potatoes are suffering from late weeks rain. Allen Crawford lost one of his best cows last week, after an inquest, the verdict was, killed by a west bound train. Our good natured friend Wm. Moss is as happy as a big sunflower and as pleasant as an office candidate. Cause a young stranger at his house of the non-voting kind, also L. Rupe is rejoicing over the same cause and is glad to say that he can add one more to the young and rising generation of republican voters in the future. To-day two masked men entered the dwelling of Mr. Hardy Claybrook's one mile and a quarter north of Crawfordville and demanded money from Mrs. C., who met them with the rolling-pin, and a hand to hand encounter ensued with one of the thieves, they were finally driven off by help arriving. Mrs. C. was badly bruised having been knocked down. J. C.

MORROW TOWNSHIP.

Another Account of the Attempted Robbery—Items, etc.

Our Stahl City Correspondent furnishes us the following items from that vicinity. On Saturday two disguised men called at the residence of Mr. H. Claybrook's and demanded of Mrs. C. the money supposed to be in the house. Mrs. C. refused. The men were disguised by flour sacks drawn over their heads, and were armed with revolvers and clubs. The old lady attempted to pull the masks off one of the men, when he struck her twice across the forehead making ugly gashes. Another savage blow was aimed at her which she ward off partially, thus doubtlessly saving her life. She screamed and brought two ladies to the scene, when the scamps left. Mrs. C. thinks she recognized the perpetrators of this dastardly outrage. Officers are now looking the matter up. Maria Bibee, wife of P. D. Bibee died this week. She was in her 59th year. They were married 33 years ago in Tennessee, and moved to this state in 1859. She had been ill some fifteen months of bronchitis. She was a model wife, mother, neighbor and Christian. She leaves a husband and a large family of grown up children.

We have also to record the death of Elizabeth Elliott at the residence of her father Tobias Lankard in Liberty township, Aug. 5th. She was a resident of Fontane, Ind., and came home for better medical treatment and to test the virtue of New Baden Springs. Everything was done possible in the way of care and attention, but without avail. Sunday night following an infant daughter of the deceased also died. The child was about eight months old.

The primary was well attended and passed off satisfactorily. Good humor prevailed and 71 votes were cast.

Rev. Ray preached at the Gilmore school house on Sunday. The east bound freight No. 4 wrecked two cars on the 10th. It occurred on the farm of Judge Stahl. Two cars loaded with ties were badly demolished. Cause a broken track.

Corn prospects are improving and there will be half a crop. Considerable hay spoiled during last wet spell.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stone are re-joining in the possession of a young heir.

Col. J. M. Glover.

There is talk of the Hon. John M. Glover, of Lewis county, being an independent candidate for Congress at the coming election. Col. Glover served three terms in Congress from this district and made an efficient representative. He has yet a strong following in his own party, and though an independent candidate, a large number of democrats would support him as against the nominee, which is certain to be the present incumbent—Edina Sentinel.

Ways that are Peculiar.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—During the past week two car loads of Chinamen ticketed to California have arrived in Chicago over the Baltimore & Ohio and proceeded westward. It seems that recently there was some inquiry as to whether, under the act of congress regulating Chinese immigration, a colony of nearly 40,000 Chinamen whose engagements had expired in the West Indies could be transported home by way of the United States. Pending the decision of the government authorities it is rumored that these Chinamen have been spirited across the continent.

Arastarchi Bey says the name of Arabi is not to be pronounced as Arabi nor as Arabee, but as Arabi with the accent on the middle syllable. This is an unwarranted piece of presumption on the part of Mr. Arastarchi, in attempting to dictate American pronunciation of Egyptian, and is deserving of popular indignation from a people among whom the "as you please, free for all" rules of pronunciation finds so many advocates—Eagle Times

A Real "Father of His Country."
George Washington's right to the title of "Father of his country" might well be disputed by the Indiana man who has 53 children, nine twins, and 300 other descendants. G. W. may have been the father of the country, but the Indiana patriarch has certainly a friendly interest in the population.

PRAYING FOR RAIN.

Prayer, too often, is little more than form and fashion. Owing to the protracted drought, suffering and starvation, the Lord Bishops of India wrote to their clergy to at once commence praying for rain. This is the form, worded by the Bombay Bishop:

"Oh, God, who by Thy Son Jesus Christ hast promised to hear the petitions of them that ask in his name, send, we beseech Thee, to the people of India in their necessity such moderate rain and showers, that they may receive the fruits of the earth to their comfort and to Thy honor, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

This was a very unpopular prayer, because asking for only "moderate rain and showers," when a succession of drenching rain-forms were very badly needed.

This prayer was not answered. The drouth continued. No pearly rain-drops fell to cool the parched earth. There was no Elijah, seemingly, to prevail. And then the Hindoos prayed for rain!

The following appeared in a Bengalese journal:

"Owing to the drouth and consequent failure of crops, the Mohammedans met in a body, in a maiden, a mile out of town, and offered prayers for rain. Strange to say, from the very moment the sky began to be overcast with thick clouds, and it has been raining ever since then."

The Madras Times is responsible for this: "Yesterday, at Indore, all the people from the Maharajah to the peasants full 15,000 met in the fields to invoke their gods, by prayers, to send them rain. After the Poojahs the Maharajah took the plow and tilled a bit of soil, and her Highness, his wife, like a very peasant, waited upon the Maharajah while at work. The gods were really moved by such a pathetic scene, for immediately after showers came down, and the crowd, dispersed amid great rejoicings."

A few days later a Bombay newspaper contained the following information: "Notice were circulated a few days since to the Parsee community, signed Khan Bahadur Dostoor Noshervanjee Jamspejee, High Priest of the Parsees, intimating that prayer was to be unitedly offered to the Almighty that rain might no longer be withheld.

Carriages began to pour into Nana's at an early hour in the forenoon, bringing crowds of eager worshippers to the Patel's Agary, where the meeting was held. The people turned their faces toward the east. The prayers were conducted in a solemn manner by the Dostoor, and lasted for an hour. And to the great satisfaction of the Parsee worshippers, and others likewise, a portion of the crowd could have barely reached their homes before the rain poured down in torrents."

Because of these immediate rainfalls after the Parsee and Hindoo prayers for rain, the Hindoos taunted and mocked the Christians, "your God did not hear your prayers; but our God heard and answered ours." The truth is, the Infinite answers no prayers not in accordance with the Divine Will and immutable law. Prayers affect us rather than God, by lifting us up into higher and holier conditions. Prayers change us, not God.

Modern Hindoos, in their blindness, worship millions of gods. In remotest antiquity they believed in and adored one invisible God, who filled illimitable space. This is the testimony of the ablest historians and archeologists. To the same end, Max Muller, the prince of linguists, informs us that "The further we go back, the more we examine the earliest germs of every religion, the purer, I believe, we shall find the conception of the Deity.
